The Holiday Season is again upon us. The time for gathering of friends and families together to share our many blessings is a special time for all. As we look back over the past year, we can all be proud of our accomplishments and wonder what made the time pass so quickly!

As Donna and I are beginning to root here in your midst, we are making many new friends. The Pioneers in Omaha have made this transition a very easy one. The concern the Cornhusker Chapter has shown for their members and the community as a whole is truly impressive. Hardly a week has passed that I am not reminded by someone of the many activities and concerns that you are involved in directly. I hope each of you will also look forward to the New Year as an opportunity to expand your involvement with Pioneering.

At this time of thanksgiving, I feel that it is appropriate to thank each and every one of you for your many contributions to the well-being of our community. As we celebrate this special season, may you and your loved ones find joy and happiness in the coming New Year.

Bob Pierson
Getting to know you

The intent of the "Getting to Know You" page of your Pioneer Stalk Talk is to acquaint Pioneer membership with individuals who make their contributions without revealing their real selves. This month's guest is no exception. Most of us know Bob Neiderheiser as an Industrial Engineer, or a Pioneer, or a hobbyist dedicated to model railroads, or as the Chairman of our Leisure Time Activities Show. As a reporter, I'm rewarded with the opportunity to make an expose' of Bob Neiderheiser for the person that he really is.

Bob Neiderheiser is a native son. A home bred "Big Redder" who was born, reared, schooled, married and settled in Omaha. Thirty-one years ago he exchanged rings and vows with his partner Sharon, and a bond was made then to be strengthened by their children - three girls and a boy. The key to that bond is now the grandchildren who somehow seem to take over.

Bob and his wife Sharon meld into their southwest Omaha neighborhood, are good neighbors, and active community members. Bob is a member of the Masonic Lodge, and is a Shriner. The Neiderheiser's interest is also generously directed toward the Calvary Baptist Church where both Bob and Sharon serve on the church council. Bob's church activities could best be enumerated by ditto marks as he has or still serves on most of the committees that keep a church responsive to its own needs as well as that of the community it serves. The Neiderheiser name resounds with familiarity in the church family.

One would expect that somewhere in Bob's roots would be a healthy scattering of railroad people because of his interest and hobby of model railroading. That is not the case. Bob's impetus stemmed from a toy train his father gave him to stimulate an interest in something other than street activities. This toy train chugged its way along, steam rolling a plaything into a solid desire to learn more about real trains, steam locomotives and railroading in general. This reporter, who comes from a long line of rail history and family, was astonished with the knowledge of locomotives and their uses possessed by Mr. Neiderheiser. It was difficult to sidetrack him. Bob has a huge collection of locomotives, trackage and associated HO gear to make up an extensive model railroad display.

Furthering his compassion to acquire added knowledge for his hobby, Bob is also an amateur photographer, with railroads his foremost subject. At one time he held a photographers pass on the U.P. railroad.

As a Pioneer, Mr. Neiderheiser has been one of the Chapter entries in the annual Leisure Time Activities Show along with his wife Sharon and we are grateful for that interest. The Cornhusker Chapter was so grateful that they assigned the chairmanship of the last two shows to Bob. The show this year had over 30 exhibits and an overflow crowd of visitors. Bob developed a full head of steam, switched the event to the "main line" and conducted the exhibit with an "all aboard" success.

As our interview was drawing to a close, I asked our guest if he had any special wishes for the future? I became concerned when he replied "Travel". I wonder if Bob means by rail.

Pioneers are fun people. They are also interesting people. Bob is a dedicated Pioneer - a dedicated person. His timetable includes caring for people.
LOVE YOUR HEART - EXERCISE

You're never too old to exercise. It will help you keep looking and feeling your best.

How will exercise help you and your heart? Exercise can help you maintain muscle tone (including the heart muscle), improve circulation and breathing, maintain good digestion and bowel function, control weight, ease tension, and maintain or increase flexibility.

Plan a program that fits your physical condition and that you enjoy. Your physician should advise you. Begin your exercise program slowly; then gradually work up to more strenuous activities. Activities that increase the efficiency of heart and lungs are essential. For example, try brisk walking, swimming or bike riding.

Establish a target zone. There is an amount (intensity or vigoroussness) of exercise which is enough to condition the muscles and cardiovascular system (heart and blood vessels) leading to physical fitness, but is not overly strenuous. That is, there is a target zone in which there is enough activity to achieve fitness, but not too much to exceed safe limits. The name of the game is finding your target zone. Below is a table of target zone pulse rates. The target zone is 60 - 75% of your maximum pulse rate. Your maximum heart rate is usually 220 minus your age.

A convenient pulse spot is the inside of your wrist just below the base of your thumb. Count your pulse for 15 seconds and multiply by four.

Begin your exercise period with a 5 minute warm up to include stretching type activity such as toe touching and sit ups. Then exercise for 20 minutes, keeping in your target zone. Finish with a 5 minute warm down such as slow walking. Increase the amount or speed of exercise as your fitness improves. Stick to a level of exercise that's comfortable. Exercise at least every other day.

Make exercise a regular habit. Wear comfortable clothes and wait about 2 hours after eating before you exercise. Don't overdo to the point of fatigue. Get enough rest. Pace yourself in any activity and take rest breaks when you need them. Learn to relax before going to bed so you get a good night's sleep. With increased exercise you may find you need less sleep than you used to. With proper exercise you'll truly be giving Love and Life to your heart. Be as active as possible during the day in addition to exercising. For example: Walk to the store instead of driving; do some gardening.

HOW TO KNOW YOU'RE GROWING OLDER

When--
You feel like the night before, and haven't been anywhere.
You get winded playing chess.
You sink your teeth into a steak and they stay there.
Your knees buckle and your belt won't.
You sit in a rocking chair and can't get it going.
Your back goes out more than you do.
Everything hurts and what doesn't hurt, doesn't work.
Your wife says yes and you forgot what the question was.
You cease getting advertisements from Insurance Companies.
Your dressing chair holds more of you than your bed.
LEISURE TIME ACTIVITIES SHOW

The week of November 1 was declared National Pioneer Week for 1982. The theme this year was "Communication Begins With You". As in past years, the Cornhusker Chapter took this opportunity to present its annual "Leisure Time Activities Show" which was held November 4th and 5th in the Company Auditorium. For the first time, families of all employees were invited to visit the show at selected times Thursday, November 4th, while Friday's show was for employees only.

The 1982 show had 32 exhibits manned by talented Pioneers who were on hand to explain their crafts and displays and give demonstrations of their skills. Comments from those who visited the show indicated that the show was once again an overwhelming success. Our "experiment" of inviting the families of employees to the show exceeded our expectations as approximately 600 family members viewed the show bringing our total attendance this year to 2150 the largest ever.

I wish to thank the committee comprised of Maxine Tatreau, Sharon Neiderheiser and George Maul for their efforts and all the workers and exhibitors for making the show and Pioneer days such a success.

LIFE MEMBER LUNCHEON

On November 4, 1982, approximately 200 life members and partners enjoyed a "sneak preview" of the Hobby Show in the Company auditorium and then enjoyed lunch in the Company cafeteria.

Judging by the interest in the exhibits, the many smiles and the good fellowship being manifest - a good time was had by all.

Our next luncheon will be on February 24, 1982. Life Member Representatives, Erv Tyrdik and Bill Ruge have scheduled a travelogue from Travel and Transport Travel Agency which should be an interesting program. We talk a bit more about this elsewhere in this issue.
Here are some recipes you can try that were sent to us from the Pecan Plantation.

CAR RALLYE

On a golden day in October, as only Nebraska can produce, about 250 Pioneers, Partners and kids tried to find their way to the "secret place".

Of course, the committee gave very explicit instructions on both routes such as; "QCM", "3rd opportunity L" or "SSS". As any fool can see no one should have had any difficulty finding their way around Iowa or Nebraska with those sort of instructions.

All participants were told that the timings were based upon five miles per hour under the speed limit except when the instructions said "enjoy the ride". Let me ask you, do you enjoy the ride after winding around over hill and dale with no rest stops in view? Under those circumstances, does one throw caution to the winds or grit ones teeth and hope for the best. Of course the panic envelope can always be opened and the "secret place" revealed - but shucks that's worse than kidney failure.

In any case, the ride was very scenic. Those on Route "B" learned all there is to know about Missouri Valley and this reporter heard that Route "A" found their route just as baffling.

I know I'm keeping you in suspense as to the location of the "secret place". Well, if you followed instructions, you ended up at the Blair Volunteer Fire Department, and there above the firehouse was a very nice dance hall filled with the delicious aroma of Polish sausage, Italian sausage, sauerkraut, baked beans, beer, pop and lots of fun and as usual good fellowship.

Shortly after everyone had their fill of the good food, the "Peck Brothers" Western band took over and entertained the crowd. What a day - what a time - what a bargain.

A special thanks to the committee who did an absolutely outstanding job. Mike Mac Vittee and Frank Nagel co-chaired the operation assisted by many willing helpers.

All of us owe a special thanks for all of the work and dedication that went into this outstanding event. Those of you who didn't attend make sure you sign up next time because it is great!
WESTERN PARTY

The Western Party was one of the best ever, just this reporter's opinion everyone thought the party a time.

First of all, the setting was great. Exchange? After all, we wouldn't have hung around if it weren't for the cows and the cowboys.

Thanks to Tom Bowman and the decorators, the authentic scene took shape.

The food was hearty chuck wagon style, served with honey, etc., on a tin plate. A good cheer prevailed.

Then the band struck up and what an evening! The band had their real Western style that was a hit.

We owe a great note of thanks to Co- did an outstanding job right down to the minute.

If you missed it, you lost and lost big!

Dear Lee,

Thank you so much for the donation of the large buttoned telephone to Westside Community Schools. I have personally used it with one six year old cerebral palsied boy and he asks about it all the time now. This young man's spontaneous speech increased two fold because he is so highly motivated. I am hoping to be able to acquire a Tele-Train trainer from Northwestern Bell so he can even hear himself talk and learn a functional use of the phone.

I have only scratched the surface of the use of the phone, I realize, as so many children, both retarded and multiply handicapped will be able to benefit from its design. Hopefully, I will soon be sharing it with several classrooms. Maybe the parents will see the phone as a good Christmas present—who knows?

Thank you again for your kind consideration.

Dear Pal,

Ges if I was to pik a seeson that gits to me it wud hafta be this yuletide time. It causes me and the missus to do some remenisin about the quid ol' days and we cum down with the miseries cuz the yung folks who travel tha fast lane miss so much fun they jus don't smell the flowers.

In the old days, about two weeks before Christmas the stores on main street wuld wash their windows an put up speshal displays of Christmas presents an decorate them for the holiday. Member when me and maw would trudge up an down the street gawkin at them purty things and maw gettin ideas on what to make for the kids. On the corner was the north pole house put up by the Chamber of Commerce to house ol' Santa. Twas the same house they used when I wuz a kid an I think the same Santa Clas. There was the usual line of scared kids waitin to give Santa there lists. Then there was the music from the applynce store like "Jingle Bells" an "Little Town of Bethlehem" and the clangedy clang of Salysun Army bells.

Christmas was the smell of pine n'holly, candy canes, and rum drenched fruit cakes. Twas also popcorn strings, cranberry ropes, crunchy snow, church bells, Ho Ho Ho's, lafter and comments like "just what I wanted". Christmas was memorys an lumpy throats, "The First Noel" and "Silent Night". It was goin to Church and greetin peeple and sayin our thank you's.

Like I said, it gits to me, an so it has. Gotta go now so Merry Christmas everyone.

Your Friend,

Corny
