Weoma Camera Club Meets Last Time Until September

The Weoma Camera Club held its annual Pizza Party at LaCasa Restaurant on May 21. The pizza followed a program entitled, "Lakeside Geneva" presented by Arnold and Barbara Johnson.

Prizes were awarded to Dr. Ray Gillies, Tony David, Bob Douglas, Don Tatreau, Arnold Johnson, Jean Stofko, Tom McNulty and Jerry Golmanavich. The Camera Club is now enjoying their "summer break" period with the next meeting scheduled for September 17.

For membership information please contact Jerry Golmanavich on extension 3711.

AT&T Wins Double Header; Ups Season Record to 5-1

AT&T Weoma Club softballers won both games of a double header in Industrial League play on May 21.

In the first game against the Post Office, Jim Johnsen and Joe Ksiazek each went 3-for-3 at the plate while Steve Sitzman pounded out 2 hits as AT&T pulled off a 7-4 victory.

AT&T followed with a 14-4 rout of the Omaha World-Herald. Don Leisey had a perfect 4-for-4 and Chuck Todd and Doug Johnson had three hits each. Shortstop Ksiazek and second baseman Todd led the defense with a pair of double plays.

Creighton's CWS Appearance Keeps Ticket Sellers Busy

For years AT&T has offered books of tickets to the College World series for its employees at a nominal fee. Prior to May 28, 138 of the 200 ticket books were sold at the Omaha Works. By noon of the 28th of May, the remaining 62 books were sold and an additional 20 books were acquired and they, too, were sold immediately.

The sudden extraordinary interest in the CWS is, of course, due to the participation of a home-town team, namely Creighton University. The Blue Jays, with a 49-20 win-loss record, advanced to the prestigious series with the best team bat-

Weoma Sportsmen's Club— Fishing Contests, Prizes on June Agenda—Peters

Two video's were shown at the May monthly meeting of the Weoma Sportsmen's Club. The titles were - "How to Catch Trout" and "How to Troll for Fish."

At the upcoming June meeting a fishing video will be shown. The club will also have a fishing tackle swap meet. You are urged to bring all of your fishing tackle you have had in storage for the last few years and you may be able to sell or swap it.

The meeting will be held on June 5 at 7 p.m. at the Papio Natural Resources Center, Dam Site 20, 8901 So. 154th St. Refreshments and door prizes will be available.

Club President Bill Peters also announced the upcoming events:

ting average in college baseball.

The ticket-sellers at the Works were deluged with calls from employees wanting tickets, according to Linda Young, senior clerk in Dept. 521.

"I know there are a lot of disappointed people out here, but we did the best we could. Normally, we sell 200 books of tickets, but this isn't a normal year with home-town participation," she said.

For those unable to get tickets for the Creighton game all is not lost. Should the Jays advance to the championship game, they will be seen live on CBS Saturday, June 8, at 12:07 p.m.

LOTTO BULL CONTEST

Jim Krutina, Dept. 583-1, is the final winner in May for the Lotto Bull Safety Contest. He gave the correct answer to the question: "Truckers must wear safety glasses and side shields on and off the aisles in 50 Building." True or false.

Jim's answer, true, qualified him for the bonus question which he also answered correctly, taking home a total of $150.00.

Be sure to pick up a June Fact Sheet available at all plant entrances.

Dahlhauser Does It!

Pat Dahlhauser, Dept. 596 and a member of the Pin Country Club, teamed up with member Sue Gosdon and won the 2-Man Best Ball tournament on their home course.

Their Memorial Day victory was accomplished as the "team of two" shot a blistering 63. The pair split a total purse of $128. for their efforts.

DAHLHAUSER

"I can't believe how well my game has come together lately. I just hope it continues," said Pat. She has been scoring in the 46 to 50 range for nine holes.

Health Tips From TLC— Congestive heart failure

❖ Congestive heart failure is a condition in which the heart is unable to pump enough blood to the body or can only do so when too much fluid is backed up into the lungs. The cause is most often damage to the heart resulting from a heart attack. Other causes include high blood pressure, leaking heart valves, viruses, alcohol use, and birth defects.

What are the symptoms of congestive heart failure?

Shortness of breath—either with exertion or, more ominously, at rest—is the most common symptom. Weight gain and ankle swelling may occur. Fatigue and increased urination at night are common. A person with this condition may sometimes awake suddenly from a sound sleep gasping for breath.

What should you do if you have heart failure?

- Avoid excessive use of salt. Initially this may simply mean removing the salt shaker from the table, but later more severe salt restriction may be necessary.
- If you smoke, it is important that you stop.
- If you are overweight, reducing to optimal weight may put less stress on your heart.
- Resting during the day may help.
- Because sudden weight gain may indicate worsening of heart failure, get in the habit of weighing yourself at home at least every other day.
- Usually a diuretic (water pill) will be prescribed, sometimes along with potassium.
- Digoxin may be prescribed to help the heart pump stronger, and an angiotensin-converting enzyme (ACE) inhibitor may make it easier for the heart to pump blood throughout the body. Long-acting nitroglycerin tablets may also help.

When should you contact your doctor?

- Any time you note a 2-day weight gain of 2 pounds or more
- If you feel dizzy or light-headed or if you black out, either spontaneously or after taking a medication
- If you are unable to lie flat at night because of shortness of breath

Can you lead a normal life despite heart failure?

With the proper precautions and appropriate medications, heart failure can often be stabilized and you can return to your usual work. Untreated, heart failure may lead to progressive fluid accumulation, difficulty breathing, and further heart damage. A serious abnormal heart rhythm or even death due to inadequate circulation could then occur.

Avoid excessive use of salt.

Be aware of sudden weight gain.
