Family members attending Fred Holz' retirement party are sister Mary Ann Cornell (l.), Fred, and brothers Bob and Karl (r.).

Holz Family Records Over 120 Years With W.E., AT&T

Back in the mid-1950s Jerry and Paul Holz were employed by Peter Kiewit Construction Company and were involved in the building of a new manufacturing facility on what was farmland at 120th & I Streets. What they were helping construct was the Western Electric plant, a place where three of their brothers and a sister would be employed for a total of over 120 years.

Karl Holz and Mary Ann Cornell began their employment in October and November, 1956 respectively, at the company's A Building pilot plant located at 16th & Cuming Streets and were soon after transferred to the present location. Karl, a former guard, retired in February, 1983 while Mary Ann is still employed in Department 081-2.

After high school graduation in June, 1959, Bob Holz began working at Western Electric and is employed in Department 551-4. Fred Holz followed the lead of his brothers and sister and on December 2, 1959 began his W.E. employment.

At Fred's recent retirement party (January 12) the three Holz brothers and sister reminisced about their years at W.E. and AT&T and how the building that brothers Jerry and Paul helped construct changed their lives for the better.

Bruning Elected President of Toastmasters for 1990

The AT&T Toastmasters elected Shirley (Sparky) Bruning president of their chapter at a recent meeting. She takes office effective February 3. Sparky has been active in the Toastmasters for three years and has served as administrative vice-president and educational vice-president.

BRUNING

She recently received the ATM (Able Toastmaster) recognition and is currently striving for DPM (Distinguished Toastmaster). In addition to her Toastmaster activities, Sparky is also the elected recording secretary for Local Union 1974, IBEW.

Others elected were: Bob Beardsley, educational vice-president; Steve Miller, administrative vice-president; Marilyn Hollinger, secretary and treasurer; and Ann Young, sergeant-at-arms.

Installation of the newly elected officers is scheduled for January 27, 7:00 p.m. at Mr. C's Restaurant. The regularly scheduled meeting is Thursday, January 25, 4:05 p.m. in the Pioneer meeting room.

Weoma Club Honors Wilkins

The Weoma Club honored one of its representatives for her 26 years of service to the organization. Lois Wilkins, formerly of Department 572, who retired from AT&T on January 12, was presented a gift at a meeting of the Weoma representatives, chaired by Ethel Payton.

Lois worked for Western Electric and AT&T for 29 1/2 years. The Weoma Club thanks Lois for her reliable assistance over the years and wish her well in retirement. Looking on as Lois opens her package is Weoma Representative, Judy DeVault.

Safety Awareness Contest

ARA services

Sheila Moberg, Dept. 082, is the third week winner in the AT&T Safety Awareness contest. The question we asked Sheila was: the brain translates auditory impulses into sounds that we hear, true or false? Sheila answered correctly (true) and drew an envelope that won her a Spacemaker corn popper. Congratulations, Sheila! PS - We'll take popcorn any day - caramel for Shirley and cheese for Rich!

SAFETY TRIVIA

A DONOR'S THOUGHTS

I'm lying on a cot, staring at the ceiling while blood drips out of my arm. I'm trying to figure out why I enjoy doing this.

When I look at it objectively, giving blood to the Red Cross ought to offer little pleasure. How many people enjoy being stabbed in a sensitive fingertip to get a drop of blood for testing? Or having a big needle stuck into a vein? Or watching their blood run into a plastic bag? Yet I have always found that after giving blood, my day is a little brighter. Giving blood makes me feel good. I suspect it has something to do with my ideals. It's a way to share my abundance with someone else.

In one sense it's the ultimate gift. My blood, after all, is far more valuable to me than any gifts of time or money I can make.

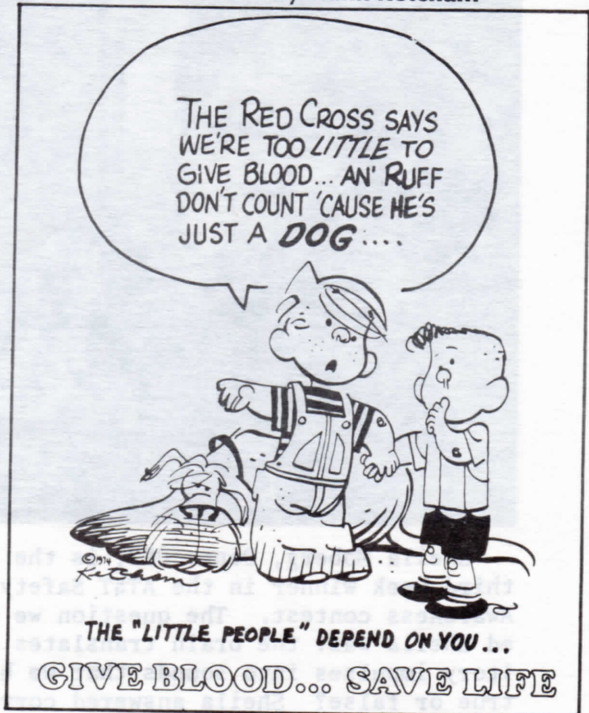

My pint of blood comes close to the traditional "tithe." It's a fraction less than one-tenth of all the blood I have. But unlike money, I don't get much back from it, except a glass of juice and a cup of coffee. No receipts. No income-tax refunds.

I know I'm giving it to someone who really needs my help. A beggar may use a phony sob-story to cheat me out of money. But the person on the operating table, the victim of a traffic accident, the leukemia patient is in no position to cheat anyone - except death.

I know too that my gift goes only to the person who needs it. Unlike money, none of it can be siphoned off by any intermediary for administrative or publicity expenses.

And it's completely anonymous. I don't even have to cope with embarrassing "thank-you's" - or the even more embarrassing lack of them.

LIVING &
GARDEN
SHOW '90

The 11th annual "Outdoor Living & Garden Show" has combined with the 10th annual Food Fair in 1990. These two events have merged to offer the best possible environment - an appeal to the senses in sight, smell, touch, and taste festivities throughout the weekend. This combined show guarantees a more colorful exciting event in a much larger area -- "two shows for the price of one".

Combined programming, featuring the best of both shows will involve: Entertainment, A Children's area, Theme Gardens, Seminars, Cooking Demonstrations, Lawn and gardening tips.

The "Midwest Garden & Food Fair '90" is co-sponsored by The Lutheran Medical Center Service Guild, Lutheran Medical Center, and Cornucopia, Inc.

Lutheran Medical Center proceeds for the Garden Show and the patron kickoff "Party" will be used for drug and alcohol treatment and rehabilitation for the Adolescent Program at Lutheran Medical Center.
