Wanted: Art Entries for the Quality Calendar Art Contest

The clock's ticking closer to the May 29 entry deadline for the Omaha Works Quality Calendar Art Contest. Anyone kindergarten age through adult may enter their original, horizontal-format artwork, as long as they are either an employee, an employee's child (adult children included!)

or grandchild. A trio of local art educators/artists will judge entries and select 12 works of art. Winning entries will be reprinted in full color in 1992 calendars as will photos of the winning artists.

"Participation in the contest has been slower than we would like," commented Graham Seiter, manager of the sponsoring quality organization. "Maybe people are procrastinating during this busy time of year--we just hope they don't delay too long and miss an opportunity for recognition and prizes for themselves or family members."

Each of the 12 winners will receive a $100 U.S. Savings Bond and a $25 gift certificate to Standard Blue Artworld. A brief writeup on the artist will accompany his or her photo and artwork. Calendars will be distributed to all Works employees during October, National Quality Month.

Complete rules and entry forms have been distributed to all employees, but extras are available at plant entrances, in the Employee Activities Mall or by calling Louise Kushinsky at x3691 or you may use the entry form elsewhere in this issue of the Weoma Club News.

Seiter said it couldn't be easier to enter--artists don't even have to create a work specifically for the contest (as long as it was completed in the time frame of the cate-

Weoma Club Softball Opens Season With Four Teams

Brian Seaton drove in 2 runs with a perfect 3-for-3 at the plate helping Sluggo's defeat the Balls & Strokes, 12-2 in softball action on April 23. Sluggo's remains on top of the league with a 2-0 record.

In a May 7 game, Sluggo's fought it out with the Local Yocals, headed by Phil "Hillbilly" Filarecki. Sluggo's came out on top of the 6-2 contest.

Earlier, Filarecki's crew lost a heartbreaker to the Pipeline, losing in a slugfest, 13-10. Ozzie Filarecki batted 3-for-4 for the Yocals.

Novotny's crushed the Chuggers in a strong showing in the season's opener, 10-1. Novotny's share the league lead with 2 wins against no losses after tripping Super Auto, 15-4.

In other league play, "Slammin'" Sammy Martin's hot bat wasn't enough as the Reds lost a slugfest, 20-15. Martin was 3-for-4.

In the Reds' second game of the season on April 30 the hard-hitting attack of Bud's Place was too much for them as the succumbed, 21-7. Sam Martin vowed after the game that the Reds "will be back."

Weoma Club Activities

The Weoma Club tennis, golf and softball leagues are now in progress with many employees participating. The secretaries of each league are being asked to submit to the Weoma Club the result sheets from each league's weekly activity. Most secretaries are prompt in their reports, however some fail to so.

Individuals exceptional play, such as a birdie or hole-in-one in golf, a home run or no-hit game in softball should be reported by each league to the Weoma News.

Next week the final and official results of the Weoma Club bowling tournament will be posted in the weekly paper.

All tournament directors are also asked to follow the same policy that pertains to the league secretaries.

Works Retirees Assist In Nebraska Public TV Auction

Four retirees from the Omaha Works made themselves available as "Go-Getters" for the Nebraska Public Television (NPTV) auction that was held from May 3 through the 11th.

Charlie Vessell, Dan Dormer, Guy Godios and Charlie Couch collected items from various businesses that sold at the auction for $31,088. This figure was $11,088 over their goal of $20,000.

Linda Young, captain of the Go-Getters, said the purpose of the auction helps provide quality television programming of which forty-five per cent of the cost of operations comes from fund raising. The remaining fifty-five percent is financed through taxes.

Vessell led the AT&T team by soliciting $12,000.00 in scholarships at the Universal Trade Institute. Dan Dormer collected $4,300.00 in computer software packages while Couch added $1,050 in a Trail Ridge ski package. Godios acquired a $2,000.00 scholarship from the Methodist School of Nursing.

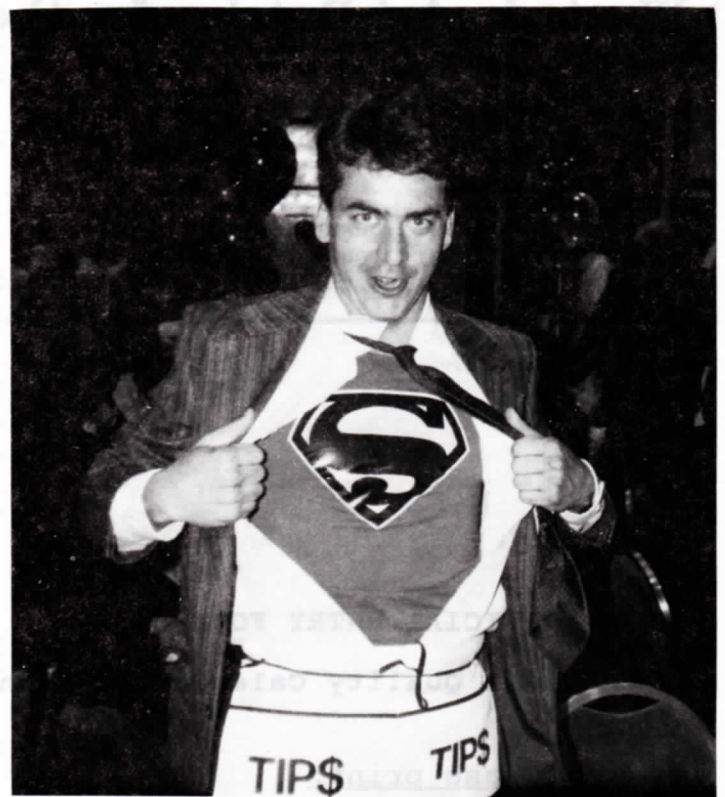

The most unusual item solicited was done by Dick Winter. Touch of Elegance Photography donated the gift of a 'boudoir photograph' valued at $239.00.

Shamloo Tennis Leader

Winning 78.2 percent of his matches, Shervin Shamloo leads the standings in the Weoma Club Men's Doubles tennis league. Rick Fleming is currently in second place followed by Roger Cars- tens.

Runnels as Clark Kent at fund raiser for the Nebraska branch of the Leukemia Society of America.

It's a Bird, It's a Plane...

No, It's Superman Runnels

A benefit to raise funds for the Nebraska branch of the Leukemia Society of America was given a boost by Rich Runnels of Department 744. The event was the Celebrity Waiters' Luncheon held at the Omaha Marriott Hotel.

As one of the waiters, Runnels' job was to raise money through tips and challenges. Dressed as Clark Kent, he was challenged to change into his Superman costume in front of the audience, but the challenge didn't end there. Creighton Bluejays basketball players and waiters Bill O'Dowd (7') and Chad Gallagher (6' 10") helped Runnels fly by carrying him through the air.

Runnels' personal efforts brought in over $500 for the Leukemia Society and over- all $26,000 was raised. Michael Scott of KETV emceed the event at which 300 people attended.

Classes at a Discount

Employees may participate in the Millard Community Education classes at a 10 percent discount. This discount is for tuition only, not for books and supplies. In order to receive this discount, employees must identify their place of employment at the time of registration. Flyers are available in the information rack located in the Employees Activity Mall.
