Weoma Club NEWS

November 20, 1991

Although this photo was taken in 1990 it is reminiscent of the recent ice storm that played a Halloween trick on Omaha and area residents a few weeks ago. Jerry Golmanavich, acting president of the Weoma Camera Club, captured this winter scene in the Old Market area of downtown.

If you would like to join the Camera Club contact the Weoma Club office on extension 3617 or visit the office in the Employees Activity Mall.

Volunteers Sought for 1991 Weoma Club Christmas Party

Preparations are on schedule for the 1991 Weoma Club Christmas Party to be held on December 7 in the company auditorium.

Sandy Fitzgerald, Weoma Club director and organizer for the yearly event, said the theme this year will portray cartoon characters that are most popular with children. And, of course, Santa has promised to be here to find out what the children want for Christmas and to give them a gift in advance of the holiday.

The committee has each operation of the party on or ahead of schedule but volunteers are needed to assist in certain areas like the ones listed below. Please fill out the form below and return it to the Weoma Club office.

Results as reported by Terry Moore-

Linda Book's BOOKER T & THE M.V.P., with the help of the old Jock (D.L.) took four of the five games from Hill-billy and the LOCAL YOCALS. I'm not sure if D.L. stands for "Darn Lucky" or "Darning & Loveable."

Tom Furst and THE BUNCH whitewashed Rick and the Y.P.M.O., 5-0. The last two games Rick had a chance to win but Tom reverted to his power game and won 15-13 both times.

The last match of the night, which lasted over two hours, saw Terry Moore and the DEUCES winning four of the five games from the KINK (Jim Curran) and his Court.

LOTTO BULL CONTEST

Chuck Leyendecker, Dept. 552-4, is the latest winner in the LOTTO BULL SAFETY AWARENESS contest. He correctly answered the question: "before operating a fork truck, you must have what?" His answer was: "be trained and be licensed."

Chuck won $100 for his efforts but failed to win the $50 bonus question. The next bonus question will be worth $100. Congratulations, Chuck!

Guidelines For Safety

Safe Use

- ☐ Read the manufacturer's directions before using - learn about how it operates, how to clean it, and how to store it safely.
- ☐ Use only for the specific purpose for which it is intended.
- ☐ Use only the ammunition designed for your particular firearm.
- ☐ Load only when you are ready to fire, never beforehand.
- ☐ Never use a firearm while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs.
- ☐ Never leave your firearm unattended.
- ☐ Wear eye and hearing protection when using a firearm.

Safe Handling

- ☐ Always point it in a safe direction, away from yourself and others.
- ☐ Keep safety on while unloading.
- ☐ Open action until ready to store.
- ☐ Keep fingers away from trigger until ready to fire.
- ☐ Make sure firearm is unloaded before and after each use. Francisco Velasquez
- ☐ If firearm is damaged, do not use; have it repaired only by a qualified professional.

Safe Storage

- ☐ Store firearm only when unloaded.
- ☐ Lock firearm and ammunition in separate cases away from children.
- ☐ Use trigger locks when not in use.
- ☐ When traveling with firearms, be sure to have all required permits and licenses readily available.
