To 1 1/2-year old Shea Lusaro it was truly the "good life" at the AT&T company picnic at Peony Park on Sunday, September 8. He out-ran his competition in a leg race and for his achievement he was given a teddy bear by Jay Carter, Works vice president.

Shea is the grandson of Dolores Lusero, Dept. 581. He is shown being held by his mother, Patti.

The following pages contain more photos of the picnic events and people in attendance.

NOTE: The tournament will be held at Dewey Park on Sunday, Sept. 22 from 11:00 a.m. to approximately 6:00 p.m.
The ever-popular watering hole was being attended by volunteers (left to right) Dick Cefrey, Jack Nigh, Terry Godsey, Jim Kajdasz and Gary Reese. Hank Wnuk (foreground), chairman of the picnic committee, a position he has held for the past several years as a Weoma Club director, checks out the areas of activity at Peony Park.

Wnuk is due to retire early in 1992, leaving the picnic chairmanship to an, as yet, unnamed successor.

Something for Everyone at 1991 Company Picnic

Sunday, September 8, began with overcast skies and a threat of rain but as the afternoon approached the sun shown through the clouds and the day was perfect for the annual AT&T employees picnic. An estimated 4,626 people took advantage of the pool, according to Hank Wnuk, picnic committee chairman.

Wnuk also told the Weoma Club News that people were in attendance during the six-hours the park was open and many participated in the various scheduled activities.

A new feature was added this year. The AT&T Weoma Wheels Club displayed 14 restored automobiles and one motorcycle. The club was formed earlier this year and has been active in participating in area auto shows, according to Jon Bullock, club president.

Peony Park’s new ride, the go-carts, was a big hit for adults as well as the kids. Patti Tomblinson was back again with her face-painting stand. The Royal Grove was the scene of young dancers swinging to the music of Jay Ridenour and his Ton-O-Toons music.

The committee conducted races for various age groups, horseshoe matches and bingo. Scott Wilson won first prize again this year in the singles (continued on page 5)

Desert Storm Troops Remembered

Tribute was paid to the five Works employees who participated in Operation Desert Storm. In addition to the photo display on the stage of the Royal Grove, Jay Ridenour of Ton-Of-Toons played music in their honor. The five men are: Arnie Jacobsen, Lyle Clark, Bob Wall, Jr., Don Taylor and Gus Checkett.

All five are Army Reservists and were presented plaques signifying the Works’ gratitude for their service to our country. Works vice president Jay Carter made the presentation earlier this summer.
Each of us enjoys "getting back to nature," taking a break from our busy lives to experience the good feelings that come from interacting with our unspoiled lands and all the living creatures that live in them.

But for some of us, the young, the elderly and the disabled, the beauty of nature can be accompanied by formidable challenges. Access to natural places is often limited, with terrain too rugged to accommodate wheelchairs, canes or tiny feet. And muddy or slushy ground can deter even the heartiest of souls from communing with Mother Nature.

Fontenelle Forest Association is making the great outdoors easier to enjoy for nature lovers of every age and ability with the construction of a barrier-free, all-weather equal access boardwalk. The first 1250 foot loop of this one mile trail is now open. Two additional loops will be completed in 1992.

The first loop features seven interpretive rest stations which describe the user's surroundings and offer educational information encouraging environmental awareness and preservation. The completed trail will include 25 such stops.

The trail is ideal for hosting hikes for area school groups because of its easy access and its all-weather capacity. In addition, the boardwalk reduces stress on the forest itself which is caused by off-trail use and use during wet weather.

With 17 miles of trails at Fontenelle Forest, taking a hike has always been a fun and educational adventure. With the advent of the equal access boardwalk, it's an easy one, as well.

horseshoe match. Placing second was Ed Hoffman followed in third place by Gary Callahan. The doubles entry of Gary Callahan and Frank Tenzcer took first place. Hank Wnuk and Dave Burrell finished second.

A drawing for four $25.00 gift certificates was held for the employees only and the winners were: D.F. Kinnally, Jr. (Dept. 581), Don Kramer, (Dept. 511), Joe Bonaiuto, (Dept. 597) and Phil Avino, (Dept. 511-8).

Wnuk Bids Farewell

by Hank Wnuk

Sunday, September 8, was both happy and sad for me because, after being in charge of the company picnic for the last 10 years, I am bidding farewell. I will be retiring from AT&T in the spring after 33 years of service.

I have been privileged to work with some wonderful people who, I am sure, will assist the new director if so desired.

We have seen many changes over the years concerning the picnic and, believe me, it is not easy to please everyone. The 4,000+ people who attended this year's picnic again proved that this is the best event of the year. This is only accomplished by having a hard working and dedicated committee which I truly enjoyed working with.

I would like to give a special thanks to my committee: Miyeko, Dee Kelly, Jim Williams, Denny Karloff, Kazumi Russell and Jerry Zenio. I would also like to thank Phil and Gerry Avino, Gary Callahan, Ed Hoffman, Jerry Berger, Jim Curran, Dennis Bagley and the Corny Clowns in addition to the Good Lord for 10 years of perfect weather.

Thank you.

EMPLOYEE VISIBILITY BOARDS

By September 15, 1991 Employee Visibility Boards will be set up at three locations here at the Omaha Works: EWC, Copper Apparatus and outside the main cafeteria. These boards will display charts showing Network Cable Systems business directions.

Initially five charts will be displayed. Two additional charts will be added to the boards each month thereafter until a total of fourteen charts have been displayed. Employees will stand by the boards at designated times to answer questions their co-workers may have about the charts.

The visibility boards will allow the Omaha Works employees to see how we are progressing in achieving our goals to be the world's preeminent supplier of network cable systems.

he 1991-92 Symphony Season is filled with so many exciting highlights that I hardly know where to begin to describe our offerings. I truly believe there is a richly rewarding diversity of repertoire and guest artists such as Omaha audiences have not seen in some time!

If your preferences lean toward world-famous, we offer you Misstlav Rostropovich, Ben Vereen, and Alicia de Larrocha.

If you enjoy monument music masterpieces, then you'll want to attend our performances of Bach, Beethoven, Brahms, Mozart, Mahler, and Tchaikovsky.

If you revel in observing a blossoming new career, then you must hear Wendy Warner, Leon Bates, and the Naumburg Competition Winner.

If you thrill in the presentation of Omaha Symphony musicians as soloists, you can do so on at least three different occasions.

Here we are folks, your Great Escape to a wholly different sound-world. Come, open your hearts to the music of the Omaha Symphony Orchestra!

Won Putts Take Miracle Title

The Weoma Club's Monday Miracle Hills golf league finished its regular season on August 5 with a rainout. Since the Won Putts had already locked up first place no make-up was necessary.

This is the second consecutive year the Won Putts have finished on top of the league standings. Team members are: Jim Richardson, Steve Kush, Ken Micek, Duane Hlatt, Ron George, D. Herzberg and Steve Cassidy.

A fun night was held on August 12 with the championship playoffs scheduled for later in September. The "fun night" round was won by the team of Steve Kush, Glen Hopkins, Jim Richardson and Mike Conway.
